REMARKS

25X1X

1. The erection of new wooden barracks buildings was observed in the northeastern section of Camp Mochten during the period from 1 to 5 February 1951. Trucks, including E 7-27-24, were seen in a section of the installation. The camp was patrolled by two soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets.
2. After 25 January, four or five unnumbered Soviet trucks towing AA guns of about 75-mm caliber were seen every evening at the intersection of the Spremberg-Muskau and the Friedrichshain-Gross Doeben roads. Each of the trucks was occupied by about 40 soldiers who wore red-bordered black epaulets. After remaining there until about 10 p.m. the trucks proceeded toward Spremberg.
3. On 2 February, four trucks proceeded through Friedrichshain toward Doeben. [REDACTED] were loaded with timber, narrow-gauge field railway rails and lorries. They were driven by Soviet soldiers. *
